

ANEW: BUILDING BEYOND VIOLENCE & ABUSE

Job Posting

Title: Co-Facilitator for Abuser Intervention Group	Department: Partner Abuse Intervention Program
Type: Part-Time	Reports To: PAIP Program Manager
Classification: Non-exempt	Supervises: N/A

Job Summary:

The Abuser Intervention Group Co-Facilitator is a member of Anew: Building Beyond Violence & Abuse's Partner Abuse Intervention Program. The co-facilitator is responsible for conducting psycho-educational training in a group setting to perpetrators of domestic violence in order (1) to ensure the safety and the rights of victims and their children; (2) to ensure that perpetrators are held accountable for their abusive behavior; and (3) to assist participants in non-abusive and non-controlling behaviors. The co-facilitator will work with a female co-facilitator to lead the group discussions, hold the group participants accountable, and help the group participants engage fully with the program. In addition, the candidate is responsible for maintaining healthy group dynamics, ensuring payment at time of service, and accurate and timely documentation.

Our ideal candidate is a male individual who can relate effectively with people of diverse cultural backgrounds, education, age, and experiences. The candidate can engage participants who may be reluctant to share in a group. The candidate is knowledgeable about dynamics of intimate partner violence and trauma-informed care and can demonstrate empathic, non-judgmental attitudes towards those who use abuse in a relationship. The co-facilitator can initiate dialogue with group participants focused on deconstructing historical, socially constructed entitlements that support violence. The co-facilitator is engaged in ongoing reading, dialogue, and training to deepen his understanding of intimate partner violence. Our ideal candidate is friendly, positive and a team player. They must display flexibility and the ability to multi-task to manage the range of duties associated with working in a client-centered program. The preferred candidate for this position is self-motivated, detail oriented and able to carry out tasks independently and in a timely manner. The candidate should have demonstrated computer skills, and excellent written and verbal communication skills. Additionally, the candidate should have strong problem-solving skills and strong organizational and time management skills.
