

ANEW: BUILDING BEYOND VIOLENCE & ABUSE

Job Posting

Title: Partner Abuse Intervention Program Assistant	Department: Partner Abuse Intervention Program (PAIP)
Type: Full-Time	Reports To: PAIP Program Manager
Classification: Non-exempt	Supervises: N/A

Job Summary:

The Partner Abuse Intervention Program (PAIP) Assistant is a member of Anew: Building Beyond Violence & Abuse's Domestic Abuse Intervention Program. The Program Assistant will work as an administrative assistant and group co-facilitator for the PAIP program. As an administrative assistant, the individual is responsible to work with the program manager in order to (1) maintain accurate records and files of the participants in the program, (2) keep track of payments and fees owed by participants, (3) inform referral sources about participant progress, (4) and maintain effective communication with referral sources, participants and group facilitators. As a group co-facilitator, the Program Assistant is responsible for conducting psycho-educational training through group discussion to perpetrators of domestic violence in order to (1) ensure the safety and the rights of victims and their children, (2) to ensure that perpetrators are held accountable for their abusive behavior, and (3) to assist participants in making nonviolent, non-abusive and non-controlling behaviors in coordination with other co-facilitators. In addition, as a co-facilitator the Program Assistant is responsible for maintaining healthy group dynamics, ensuring payment at time of service, and accurate and timely documentation.

Our ideal candidate is friendly, positive and a team player. It is preferred that this individual has knowledge of the dynamics of intimate partner violence and trauma informed care and is able to relate effectively with people of diverse cultural backgrounds, education, age, and experiences. The individual in this position is knowledgeable about trauma-informed care and can demonstrate empathic, non-judgmental attitudes towards those who use abuse in a relationship. They must display flexibility and the ability to multi-task to manage the range of duties associated with working in a client-centered program. The preferred candidate for this position is self-motivated, detail oriented and able to carry out tasks independently and in a timely manner. They should have demonstrated computer skills, and excellent written and verbal communication skills. Additionally, the candidate should have strong problem-solving skills and strong organizational and time management skills.
