New Staff Introduction

Hi everyone! My name is Ryah. I started with Anew in July as a Community Education Advocate. I am a recent graduate of the University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign where I studied Community Health. I am 22 years old, almost 23 (BIG VIRGO).

Some fun facts about myself

1. I am a CODA (Child of Deaf Adults)
2. I am a second gen social service worker. My mom worked in disability services for 10+ years at Progress Center for Independent Living in Forest Park.
3. I am blessed to be apart of The Greater Sisterhood, Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Inc.

I am excited to be a part of the Anew family and get to know everyone as time goes on. Please enjoy the pictures of my family and myself.

Back to School Angels - Wrap Up

Thank you to all those that have helped the children in our agency. With your help, we were able to provide 101 fully loaded backpacks with the supplies that the children will need for the upcoming school year. Your efforts will have impact for years to come.

Jeanette Klein, one of our dedicated BTSA donors sent in the picture above - a table full of supplies for the family of four siblings that she sponsored.

Additionally, she writes:

"As a child, the level of excitement in our house was palpable when picking out new school supplies. The same held true when buying them for my children. Now, here I am, a retired teacher, parent, and grandparent looking forward to seeing stacks of school supplies pile up in anticipation of a new school year. Finding the best deals on quality school supplies is an easy hunt to love. Being a Back to School Angel is a wonderful way to help students start school with the necessary tools for success. As an added thrill I hide little surprises in the supplies and imagine how tickled the kids will be to find a few bucks or a fancy pen unexpectedly. Many thanks to Anew for providing the opportunity for community members to contribute positively in the lives of local children."

Thank you, Jeanette, and all angels, who participated in 2024. Let us all wish for the best school year for all school children!

Sincerely,
Rachel Forsyth
Development Coordinator
